

Biographical Note

Wanderlino Nogueira Netto Committee Member of the United Nations Committee on the Rights of the Child

Wanderlino Nogueira is Brazilian. He studied Law, specializing in Criminology and Forensic Sexology.

His areas of expertise are Public International Law, the relationship between Law and technological innovation and sexual and reproductive rights.

He worked for the Brazil Section of Defence for Children International. He acted as Public Attorney for the Office of the State Attorney of the state of Bahia and was a professor at the Universidade Federal da Bahia.

Wanderlino Nogueira's appointment as a member of the Committee on the Rights of the Child was widely supported, in recognition of his career in defence of child rights.